

"We have been sending our clients to Clark Appliance for 37 years because they are the top professionals in their field. They provide us with exceptionally detailed specifications to ensure our jobs run smoothly. We could not ask for a better business partner."

— Suzy Reese (Reese Kitchens)

We are the appliance experts

The recipe to ensure a great customer experience is simple: offer the best products available, price them competitively, and never forget that what you're selling is service. Clark Appliance has been following this plan since 1913, right down to staffing our own professional delivery, installation and factory-trained service crews. Today we stand as the largest independent appliance retailer in the state — the only one, in fact, that is still locally and family-owned. Some recipes never go out of style.

- Non-commissioned appliance experts to help you select the best appliance for your lifestyle.
- Dedicated outside sales professionals – We understand the unique needs of the builder, remodeler and designer.
- Clark is proud to employ our own delivery, installation and factory-authorized service professionals.

"Bob and Cindy Clark have built a great reputation by providing quality service, the most professional staff, and the best products in Central Indiana. Their two showrooms offer state of the art displays, with full time chefs to help my clients release the creative gourmet inside."

— Michael Teipen (Kitchens by Teipen)

Our passionate commitment to the customer experience

Appliances are there to make life easier or more enjoyable, so we include in-depth expert instruction with every one we sell. That way, no feature goes unused, and all customers get the most out of their new appliances. In addition, our stores feature live kitchens that let people try out equipment before making a choice, as well as cooking classes with our on-site chefs to inspire and enlighten budding gourmets.

- We take ownership of the customer experience from the first visit to the final delivery ...and beyond.
- Clark's own professional chefs will unleash your creativity and inspire your passion for great food and great appliances.
- We offer a full schedule of unique events designed to educate, entertain and enrich your appetite for the perfect appliance.

"Hamilton Homes has been using Clark Appliance exclusively for over ten years. Clark Appliance offers my clients the most professional sales and service, which is a direct reflection on my own business."

— Richard Hamilton II (Hamilton Homes)
